The Honorable
 Stansfield Turner
 Director
 Central Intelligence Agency
 Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Stan:

I understand from recent telephone conversations between [redacted] and our Program Director, Maggie Sheen, that there is a strong possibility you will be out of the country when we convene for our March 4 Briefing on "Geopolitics and International Business."

You will be missed should that prove to be the case, but we certainly understand that your acceptance was contingent on such a possibility.

Should we need to reschedule your participation, I would like to suggest Tuesday, October 6. If that is inconvenient, alternate dates are Tuesday, May 6 for our Briefing on energy or Tuesday, June 3 for our session on the economic/political outlook. Your participation would, as with the March 4 session, take the format of an interview in which I would be posing questions to you.

I will be leaving the country in a few days for a three-week trip to Europe where Walter Hoadley, Executive Vice President and Chief Economist of Bank of America, and I will be briefing our overseas Associates on recent economic and political trends in the United States. During my absence, Maggie Sheen will be in touch with your office.

With all best wishes.

Cordially,

 Gene E. Bradley
 Chairman
